Current Account	£5,933

Mrs C Holmes	(parish clerk)	£100.00
Mrs J Parkington	(parish lengthmen)	£230.59

The application to create a livery yard at Ellenthorpe Kennels was discussed and approved.

ALLOTMENTS

It was noted that nothing significant had happened since the previous meeting.

REPLACEMENT OF RECREATION AREA FENCE

A quote of £1600 for a new recreation area fence had been received and it was agreed this was acceptable. It was suggested that the Clerk write to Mr Guy Hindley asking for a donation as it was known that he had also expressed a wish that the existing fence be replaced.

PARISH LENGTHSMEN

It was noted that the latest timesheet submitted by the parish lengthsmen totalled £230.59 and the areas of work undertaken had been outlined. It was noted that the lengthsmen were very attentive to Bentlea Road but other areas of the village were not receiving the same attention. It was agreed that both verges near the Church should be looked after by the lengthsmen although it was noted that one of the verges had not previously been the responsibility of the Parish Council. In addition, the footpath on the A682 by the church required attention. The lengthsman also had to trim Mill Lane which had not been done this year. It was noted that the lengthsman had provided a sheet of winter jobs they intended to tackle and it was agreed that the other jobs as discussed should also be brought to their attention.
